CAUTION.

As the season approaches for Argentines to choose the Chief Magistrate of the Republic it becomes our solemn duty to caution Englishmen and other foreigners from taking any part in the struggle, since they would thereby compromise not only themselves but in some manner their fellow-countrymen.

Every person of European origin has the option to take out naturalization papers as a citizen or to retain his rights as a neutral and foreigner. But it would be a flagrant contradiction if he were to meddle in the politics of the Republic and at the same time invoke neutral rights.

The position and rights that we enjoy as Englishmen command the strictest and most honourable neutrality. We may in the bosom of our families canvas the merits of this or that candidate, but not in public places.

The discussion of such matters in railway trains and other places of public resort is unwise. Argentines are naturally susceptible on this subject, but not more so than Englishmen or North Americans. When Baron Munster made an imprudent remark in London on the question of Ireland it threw half of England into a ferment. The case of Lord Sackville at Washington is more recent and not less instructive.

Apart from its political aspect we may say that the Presidential question affects the amenities of life, in deference to which we should avoid in public places discussions that may offend or irritate our neighbors. It is apropos to remind our readers that when the Tichborne trial was going on in England notices were put up in the coffee rooms of hotels thus "You are requested not to converse about the Tichborne case."

There is a small section of Englishmen in the River Plate who have persistently maintained that if the more educated of the foreign residents took an active part in politics, it would be all the better for the country. Many Argentines are of the same opinion, but they naturally insist that in such cases the Englishmen should throw up their character as British subjects and become Argentine citizens. In this regard they are quite right.

With the experience of thirty years, we are to-day of the same opinion as in the time of the civil wars of 1859-61, that any foreigner who takes up either side in these questions endangers himself and his countrymen. If our readers will, in spite of our warning, discuss politics in the railway cars, let them, at least, so far respect the feelings of others as to speak of the candidates by their initials, as Mr. M. or Mr. P. or whoever they be.

BUENOS AYRES, ROSARIO AND TUCUMAN RAILWAY.

III

The lunch at the Tucuman railway station held for several hours, owing to speeches having been resumed at the tables. Mr. Todd, the Governor, and his Minister all spoke, also Dr. Davila, who, in a most brilliant address, apostrophised the audacity of British capital; champagne flowed on all sides, the heat was almost as great as the eloquence, and we were right well pleased when Mr. Davison led the way back to the carriages to dress for dinner. Messrs Todd, White, Ahergo, Pirovano, and Musgrave went up to town, but the rest of the party preferred the train, where we had accommodation. The dinner at the hotel Dos Mundos was a banquet at which the Minister of Government assisted; numerous toasts were given and speeches made, and at 11 we rose to prepare for the ball.

Next day Dr. Araoz gave a pic-nic party at Vipos, "carne con cuero" etc., and that night there was another blow-out at the hotel followed by a ball, to which all were invited and most of us went; but, owing to the station being a good way from the centre of the city, it was awkward getting back to the sleeping coaches after the ball, and Messrs Hill, Barrow, Munroe, and Puleston lost their way and met with a chapter of accidents which has nothing to do with the case. On Sunday morning we all started by the Provincial Tucuman railway, of which Mr. Stewart is manager, for San Pablo, the great sugar factory of Mr. Nouguez. Seven years ago we visited with General Roca the same establishment and went on horseback to the top of the mountain. Mr. Noguez well recollected the occasion and told me that the arroyo on the top of the mountain, where we all had a snack, has ever since been called Arroyo Mulhall. In the files of the STANDARD at that period will be found a full description of this great sugar factory, plantations, and bewitching scenery; we then had to go on horseback and in coaches from the city, now we go by train. The factory has been much enlarged and costly machinery added. We saw in the huts of the laborers a large proportion of Indians; they make the very best of peons; we all stood around the old noble pine, the largest in the republic, which Penaloza tried in the revolution to destroy, but the tree was too big for him, and the bullets and bullet marks are still there to show the impotence of the rude soldiers; Messrs Todd, Davison, and Hill cut their names on the bark. The heat was now tremendous and we were glad to get back to the house where breakfast was spread along the corridor and under the very shadow of the great mountain. The empanadas were delicious and our London friends did them the fullest justice. As a matter of course there were speeches, but the heat was too great, and, as Mr. Wibberly had timed us to start from Tucuman for Santiago at 1 o'clock, we all had to hurry off. Horses were supplied, as it is about a mile from the factory to the station. Many went on horseback and more's the pity, as, owing to the extraordinary make of the Tucuman saddle, the fine silk trowsers of some of our friends were split up in a minute, which made it very awkward for them. 'En fin,' we all got back at 12.30 after a delightful morning's excursion and bade good bye to all. We began our return trip to Buenos Ayres under the usual favorable auspices of cheers, music and rockets. Tucuman presents many great features of material progress since our last visit in 1883, when General Roca took us to all the great sugar factories in the environs. In the city we noticed less movement than in 1883: the tramway which ran regularly then is now stopped and burst up, houses shut up and shops to let in every street. At the plaza, in the evening, the ladies turn out as usual, but we noted there was no music, and some one said the men have not been paid for months. Electric light stars shone over the corners of the principal streets, but somehow things looked brisker and better when they used tallow candles or kerosene. The sugar industry is, no doubt, progressing, and this is the great staple. The city is 327 years old, which most of our English friends found it hard to believe, and still harder to credit that it is the birth place of Argentine Liberty, and the house still stands where the declaration of Argentine Independence was signed by the patriots on 9th July, 1816. The disproportion of sexes is extraordinary. Mr. Nouguez told me there are 50 women for one man, which appears incredible. The women are very dark and decidedly handsome, they wear their hair platted down to their heels. Owing to the railways, sugar machinery, etc., the number of foreigners is now much larger than formerly. The Station was crowded with Englishmen on our arrival, mostly engineers, as three railways now having stations in Tucuman are all English and belong to English Companies; but it seems to us that this Rosario Railway will very much interfere with the traffic on the Central Northern, which is managed by Mr. Munro, and runs from Tucuman to Cordoba; and as for the branch from Frias to Santiago, the rails may now be taken up, as the traffic won't cover expenses. The branch cost the Government two million dollars gold, and now is the same as useless.

We didn't see much of the Governor of Tucuman, although we had a letter of introduction to H.E. The pic-nic to Vipos was a great treat to our London friends who were enchanted with the lovely scenery. Mr Cortinez of the Railway department had a "carne con cuero" fete organized which passed off well. The tunnel, 220 metres, and the viaduct 340 metres long greatly attracted the attention of the party. Dr Araoz invited us all to go on to Salta as the extension works are now finished, but as Messrs Todd and Davison return to London next week, we were unable to accept the invitation. We now go at full speed back to Santiago del Estero where they are waiting dinner for us. Mr W B Coventry is the Engineer of the section, and the work reflects on him the greatest credit, Messrs Howell and Reeves are his assistants. The terminus at Tucuman will be finished in a few months; the Company was determined to have sufficient area for the trade as they have eight squares of land for goods deposits, etc., and all walled in. Everything about this railway seems to be well done, and from what we have seen of it we must say that of the eight millions capital invested not one penny was squandered; all the important bridges on the line were erected by Mr James Lumsden, the well known bridge erector, and the works do him credit. Mr Warsoe, who lives in Capt. Thompson's old house in Rosario is the Engineer of the Rosario section. Then there is the Morteros branch, 188 kilometres, of which Mr Wasbrough is the sectional Engineer and Mr G Hogan asistant, and next follows the Santa Fe branch open and running to Santo Tome, 77 kilometres. Mr Clement, Sectional Engineer, A E Lightbody, chief assistant are both up to their eyes in business making the Salado bridge, the longest in the Republic, 2,300 metres over the mouth of the Rio Salado, about one league from its entrance into the River Parana. This most important branch was opened to Santo Tome on 20th Sept. 1890, and as soon as the bridge is finished, which Mr Lightbody tells me will be in about 6 months, the trains will run through into the city of Santa Fe. Thus this railway will have stations in five cities of the Republic. With much felicity Mr. Todd said in his speech that this line is the greatest and grandest in the Republic. Mr. J. Percy Clarke, the Engineer-in-chief of this great company, is a young man, and may well feel proud of his work. I heard that when the surveys through the woods were made and line marked out, he went over it and saved the Company 13 kilometres by a shorter cut. The total line has cost about as follows:—

B. A. to Rosario	2,500,000
Rosario to Sunchales	1,000,000
Sunchales to Tucuman	2,500,000
Morteros, Santa Fe, and other branches	2,000,000
	£8,000,000

Of this great capital 3 millions were raised at par by debentures at 4 per cent. per annum, and 5 millions, we believe, 6 per cent. stock. The line has for two years paid 9 per cent. to the shareholders, and now, with the Tucuman trade open, will pay, spite of crisis, gold premium, etc., we should say, at least 10 per cent. New industries along the line are springing up very fast. We met Mr. Smyth, who is a partner of Mr. Goodwin, who conducts a very large trade in sleepers. It is really astonishing more people don't go into this business, which can now be worked on very small capital and to great advantage. Sleepers that cost at the forest $1.45, sell in Buenos Ayres for $4.15. Mr. O'Brien, representative of the Western Railway, told us that he has just ordered for his company 30,000 sleepers at $4.09, and that Mr. Trant and others have ordered 70,000. Mr. Wright and others have saw-mills in the woods working hard and fast. The freight on sleepers to Buenos Ayres is very heavy, being $1.60 per sleeper; but this Company will now, I think, be able to carry them down cheaper. We saw at La Banda and other stations large Quebracho-colorado logs which are bound for Europe. At the Estacion Fernandez, 39 kilometres from La Banda, the Minister of Hacienda of Santiago has a very fine establishment. We met Mr. Anderson, a sub-contractor in Santiago, who gave us many items about the place; but we find it hard to squeeze all our notes into this chapter. Mr. Williams, partner of Mr. Tetley the head contractor, was also in the train, and M. Garcia, chief of the Union Civica, who told us that there are only three Mitristas in the city, the whole province being for Roca.

The banquet at Santiago del Estero was the grandest affair of the whole trip. The Governor sat at the head of the table with Mr. Todd on his right and Mr. White on his left. We have no room to chronicle all the speeches. The editor of the Italian newspaper made a capital speech, apostrophising the Quebracho-Colorado as the hope and future of the province. Mr. Todd drank to the Governor of the Province and to the ladies, but Mr. White brought the speeches to a sharp wind-up by showing the time-table, and at midnight we left the tables and started for the station. Full speed on all night brought us up to Sunchales in time for breakfast, and, dashing along at the rate of 45 miles per hour, we passed through the Jewish colony started by Dr. Palacios, which they say has given but poor results, and finally arrived back at Rosario at 5.30. Mr. White, station-master, kindly favored us with papers. We dined at 8 o'clock, and took the regular night train to Buenos Ayres. We sat up till very late chatting and smoking in the saloon car, and reached the Central Station true to time at 7.45 a.m., after one of the most agreeable trips in our editorial experience.

Our Mails.

TWO DAYS LATER.

London, 16th January.

Telegraphing from Washington, Reuter's correspondent says:—Mr. Benjamin A. Enloe, who has introduced in the House of Representatives a resolution condemning the conduct of Great Britain in referring the W P Sayward case to the Supreme Court, in the course of an interview on this question is represented to have spoken as follows:—"The motion made to the Supreme Court by Great Britain appears to me a bit of sharp practice made in the hope of obtaining a decision adverse to Mr. Blaine's contention with which to confront the United States Secretary of State when the diplomatic negotiations for the settlement of the Behring Sea dispute are resumed, and which might be used as a weapon against the claims of the United States in the event of arbitration".

Dr. Samuel Dixon, of the Academy of Natural Science in Philadelphia, claims a prior discovery of lymph for the cure of tuberculosis. He announced his claim in the Medical News on Wednesday last, the day before the particulars of Professor Koch's treatment were published, but he informed the medical profession of the circumstance several weeks ago. Dr. Dixon has no doubt that the liquid for the treatment of tuberculosis which he discovered last year is identical with Dr. Koch's.

Reuter, telegraphing from Paris, says Conversations which took place yesterday among members of the medical profession in Paris, after the publication of Dr Koch's article, show, says the Figaro, that there is no modification of opinion on the subject among French doctors. They hold the account published to be entirely incomplete as to the quantity of a dose, and the substances of which the liquid is composed are not indicated. Moreover, whether the remedy is enshrouded in mystery or known there is no abatement of the necessity for great prudence in its use, for its efficacy has been in no way demonstrated, no patient treated in France having yet been cured. The French faculty maintain that it is still necessary to carry out a long series of experiments before pronouncing a final opinion. Meanwhile the remedy should be neither overlauded nor decried.

Mr. Parnell will go from Kingsbridge Station by an early train to-morrow. Leaving the main line at Limerick, he will pass through Limerick, and travelling from that city by the North Kerry Railway, will stop at Killmorna, where he is to be the guest of Mr. Pierce Mahony, M. P. Mr Parnell is expected to cross to Dublin by to-night's mail.

A meeting of the local National Club was held last night at Tralee to prepare a reception for Mr. Parnell on his proposed visit next Sunday. Mr Edward Harrington, M.P., pleaded Mr Parnell's case, but a motion to support him was rejected by 40 votes to 30. There were some exciting scenes. Mr Harrington being refused a hearing, addressed the crowd from the window of a neighbouring house. Some priests headed the victorious party.

The anti-Parnellite paper in Dublin states that the retirement of Mr Parnell has not merely been determined on, but consented to. Mr. Parnell's voluntary abdication, it adds, is being rapidly arranged.

Mr. Rathbone, M. P., addressing his constituents to-day, complained of Mr. Parnell's unpatriotic conduct in refusing to bear the consequences of the Divorce Court proceedings, and to conform to the invariable practice morality required from public men under similar discredit. The event had split the Irish Party, and had delayed, if not endangered, the success of those measures for Ireland which seemed previously so near at hand. The people of England, Scotland, and Wales would decidedly approve Mr. Gladstone's course. The Kilkenny election showed, at any rate, that the Irish people preferred the alliance with the English Liberal Party and Mr Gladstone to the support of Mr Parnell's selfish ambition. For the moment nothing could be said until the Irish had settled their differences. In the meantime, there were questions affecting England and Wales which ought not to await the settlement of the Irish question.

The Glasgow North British Superintendent reports to-day that the railway police were advised that the workmen were being annoyed by crowds as they were going to their work at Parkhead, Glasgow, and at midnight a telegram was received that the workmen must be protected. The police proceeded thither and overawed the crowd, who only made a noisy demonstration. Engines passing through Glasgow eastwards are so barricaded that the drivers and stokers are almost invisible. Several brakesmen were to-day reinstated on the North British and Caledonian systems, and some signalmen and porters have returned to the North British. The state of affairs on the Glasgow and South-Western is unchanged. One of the South-Western engine-men was returning from his work this morning when he was knocked down, and had his head cut. Mr Tait has to-day received subscriptions from the Derbyshire Miners, the London Iron Plate workers, the Lancashire Weavers, the Birmingham Typographical Society, the London Vellum Binders, and the Leicester Hosiery Union. The total subscriptions received in Glasgow amount to £10,560.

An Edinburgh correspondent telegraphs:—This morning there is no change to record in the position of the strike in Edinburgh, both parties being equally firm in their resolve to maintain their position. To night a public meeting is to be held in Waverley Market, when it will be resolved to take further steps to endeavour to bring about a settlement. The traffic on the North British and Caledonian lines continues much the same. This morning there was a decided improvement in the arrival and departure of trains at Waverly Station. The train which left King's-cross at eight o'clock last night arrived at Aberdeen at 8.13 this morning, being only thirteen minutes late. The companies report considerable progress in the goods department, and they expect, by additional men coming in, soon to effect a clearance of the goods.

The Caledonian Company's officials at Greenock report a marked improvement to-day, and say they have twenty-three engines out, and that four trains have been sent off for minerals. They also state that six of the strikers resumed work this morning.

From Berwick the railway authorities report a steady maintenance of the improvement of the past few days, both as regards the passenger and goods services.

The places of the strikers are gradually being filled up, and if the firemen could be got in more goods traffic might proceed.

"General" Booth addressed a meeting last night in the Congregational Tabernacle, Victoria Park, upon the subject of "Darkest England." He mentioned that up to date 175,000 copies of "Darkest England" had been sold, and the demand still continued. Why, he asked, should his critics demand the throwing over of the principles of work which for five-and-twenty years had operated successfully in the Salvation Army? It was not those who actually subscribed to the "Darkest England" fund who wanted to have committees and trustees appointed. The critics criticised only; the public subscribed. He contended that the public had every assurance for the proper working of the scheme, and incidentally mentioned that the total subscriptions now amount to £95,000. To the annual subscription of £30,000 which he estimated as necessary he had only got promises of £20,000. General Booth proceeded to speak of the arrangements made to begin the "Darkest England" scheme. On the 23rd inst. they would open a superior lodging-house, which had cost them £1,500, and which would accommodate 200 people. On the 31st they would inaugurate their first prison-gate brigade; and in connection with it they would have a workshop for 50 men, in the preparation of which they had spent £500. A week later they would open another lodging-house, this time for families; then another shelter in Quaker Street, Shoreditch, where there would be accommodation for over 400 men. Upon this they had spent £1,300. Again, they were converting an old brewery into temporary premises for men, and they were to open a hall in Whitechapel where poor women could find some employment. They were also making arrangements for extending the scheme to Bradford and Leeds, to Liverpool, Manchester and Bristol.

The London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian writes:—I hear that a further movement is contemplated for dealing with the "submerged tenth" on lines that will command general confidence. A wealthy Member of Parliament has expressed his willingness to start the subscription with a very handsome donation, and the idea is to form a national council to carry the scheme into effect. It has been suggested by a peer well known for an interest in philanthropic work that Commissioner Smith, late of the Salvation Army, should be approached with the view of his undertaking the management.

The weather over the United Kingdom is of a very unsettled character. Temperature, which during the early part of yesterday was low over England, began to rise during the evening, and in some places the frost has disappeared. Showers of snow and rain are reported generally from the north, east, and south-east of England. Temperature in the west of Ireland is now comparatively high, and it is rising in Scotland. North and north-east winds prevail over England. The Meteorological Office reports that very cold weather seems likely to set in generally over England, with passing snow showers and hard frost at night.

The Stock Markets have been less active to-day, and, as a rule, prices have closed dull. Home Railways were the exception, a very favourable impression being created by the declaration of the Great Eastern dividend at 4 per cent. The Ordinary Stock of that company closed at 92. The decision at the Chatham Company's meeting to-day to reject the stock splitting and reduction schemes was also received with much satisfaction. In the Foreign Market, Entre Rios Bonds fell 10, on the revolt in that Province, but other Argentine Issues were down only ¼ to ½. Chilian Issues, after falling 1, closed a trifle better than last night. Bar silver was a dull market and Rupee Paper fell ¼ in sympathy. The official price of the metal has not yet been fixed. The general belief on this side is that the Lower House will reject the Free Coinage Bill of the Senate, although advices this afternoon from Washington point to a different result.

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Sunday, Jan. 4th.

The Economist does not condescend to refer to Argentine finance, looking upon the agreement perhaps as not yet made. The Statist says:—"The Market seems to be under some misapprehension regarding the actual position of the Argentine loan of 1886 under the plan suggested by Lord Rothschild's committee which is now practically accepted. On New Year's Day the committee met a second time this week and unanimously agreed to ask for certain modifications in the reservations made by the Argentine Government. Early next week an answer is expected, and if it is favourable the arrangement will be at once concluded. As the 1886 loan is secured upon the Customs' revenue and as under the "plan" the interest upon it is to be paid in cash, it is generally assumed that the 1886 loan will rank before the new bonds representing the funded coupons of the next three years of all the debts and guarantees of the Republic, or that if it does not rank before these bonds at least it will rank side by side with them. But both these views are mistaken. The 1886 loan ranks after the new debt which is now to be created, and for the reason that the new bonds are receivable in the payment of Customs' duties whereas the 1886 bonds are not. Therefore the 1886 loan will rank for dividend only after the new bonds. In round figures it may be said that the new bonds will amount to twelve millions sterling and will bear 6 per cent with interest. When they are all issued, that is at the end of the three years, they will involve an annual charge of about £700,000. It remains to be seen whether the terrible crisis through which the Argentine Republic is passing will leave the Customs' revenue sufficiently large to supply not only the service of the new debt, but also that of the 1886 loan, not to mention the Four-and-a-half per Cent Internal Bonds for $40,000,000 to which reference is made elsewhere."

The reference is this:—"When discussing the Committee's recommendations we said that we were quite in accord with them as far as funding the coupons of the sterling debt of the Republic was concerned and we adhere to that statement now. But we objected to making the coupons when funded a charge upon the Customs' revenue, ranking together with the 1886 loan before all other existing loans. That objection, on further consideration, we consider to be well founded for reasons that we have already set out in these columns. We further objected that the Government guarantees should be treated exactly as the sterling debt and that the payments called for should be likewise funded and secured upon the Customs. But we objected still more strongly and do so to-day to the recommendation that the Four-and-a-half per Cents, which were an internal issue, intended to be held by note issuing banks as security for their notes, should be treated on precisely the same footing as the sterling debt, and that their coupons should likewise be funded and secured upon the Customs. The Customs' Duties of the Argentine Republic are being relied upon to a remarkable extent. The 1886 loan has a special hypothecation on such duties. . . . . We think that the sterling bondholders should lose no time in combining and taking measures to safeguard their own interests. They must depend upon themselves only, for those who ought to be their champions are encouraging the Argentine Government in a flagrant breach of faith. The Four-and-a-half per Cents. have been either bought or taken in pledge by the financial establishments, knowing that they were an internal issue and that they have no claim to rank with the sterling debt; and yet the Committee has now used its enormous influence to give a preference to the paper issued in payment of the interest on this debt over all the sterling debt except the 1886 loan. But our strongest objection of all is to the rescission of the contract of the Buenos Ayres Water and Drainage Works. . . ."

There is no need for me to go on with the quotation. You know the rest. Mr. Giffen's paper speaks pretty plainly, and is in no way influenced by a cringing respect for "capitalists" as was "Anglo-Argentine" of the World. It seems evident that when an agreement between the Argentine Government and the Committee is finally settled, prices of Argentine securities will require some sorting and shuffling to get them into order. Both the Statist and the Financial News point out discrepancies. For example, the Financial News observes that the Five per Cent. Debentures of the Cordoba Central Railway Company (Central Northern Section), which rank as first mortgage on that part of the line and have the guarantee of the Argentine Government, were issued in April, 1889, at 108 per cent. Under the English Committee's scheme, which has now been accepted by the Government, this guarantee is paid in new Customs Bonds. At the present gold premium part of the interest is earned by this section, but any material reduction of the premium would have the effect that the whole of the debenture interest would be earned quite apart from the guarantee. These bonds are now quoted at 67 70, while the Cordoba Central Debentures, which were on a level fours with the Central Northern Section issue, with the exception that they are secured on the older portion of the line, stand at 90-92. It follows that either the latter are too dear or the former are too cheap. In ordinary times a five per cent guaranteed railway bond under 70 would be considered a great bargain.

The Scotch railway service is improving, but the strike is not yet over. Your telegrams will announce the destruction by fire of Fifth Avenue Theatre in New York. Hermann's Theatre and Sturtevant House were also alight.

CLASSIFICATION OF GRAIN.

Feb. 12th.

Mr. Editor,

Allow me through the medium of your columns to thank Mr. Thomas Martin for his comment on my letters under this head. I quite agree with him regarding advances from bankers; that and other points I was keeping "up my sleeve" for another occasion, and I will now refer to one of those reserve points, and that is the great importance Mr Goodwin has throughout attached to pandering to the speculators, who he informs us are the "more important" buyers of grain in the consuming markets. Now I beg most distinctly to differ with Mr. Goodwin, for the speculators, as a matter of fact, do not require a single bag of grain to meet their requirements; they may deal in thousands of tons, (the same as Catalinas or other shares are dealt in on the Bolsa) but one "Bear" transaction will cover another, and in the end not a bag of actual produce is required; indeed the speculators prefer not having any, but settle their differences on estimated results. So if they can get along without the grain, I dont see that they can be looked upon by producers as the more important buyers, who want a genuine outlet for their production.

Mr. Goodwin refers to when "No. 2 River Plate Wheat" becomes a standard quality; pray what will genuine buyers understand by that? Will they know whether they are getting Santa Fe or Chubut, or Chivilcoy? or must they wait till they have inspected it themselves? If so, they will not require any certificate, but be guided by their own inspection, as usual with them.

I am afraid Mr Goodwin, in his anxiety to push his scheme and become the Mr. Sterling of the Plate, is overlooking some important details.

Yours truly.

Experience.

Railway Items.

The Inspector General has advised Government to pay the guarantee due for December on the working of the La Toma section of the Villa Mercedes and La Rioja Railway. The amount is 8,094 dols. gold, and the length of the section, which was recently opened to traffic, is 86 kilometres.

The Engineers' Department have asked Government to have a station built between kilometres 75½ and 76 on the Dean Funes and Chilecito Railway. The station would cost 18,866 dollars gold, and would benefit the "Industrial" Mining Company who have a large establishment there and are working the Candelaria gold mines. This mining company obtained in the last Paris Exhibition the only gold medal awarded to Argentine mining products.

Owing to "irregularities" a technical sub-inspector of the Central Entre Riano Railway has been dismissed.

We take the following notes from the Rio News:—

Between Amparo and Jaguary, on the Mogyana railway, a special train carrying the shareholders of the road ran over and killed a man.

It appears that the directors of the Paulista line are renewing their attempt to purchase the English road. They seem determined to have it.

In a collision between trains on the Central line, near Belém, one of the engine-drivers was killed and 4 employes and three passengers were injured.

The board of directors of the Paulista railway company has declared that it had no intention of purchasing the English road unless it could obtain from the Government a guarantee of interest on £7,000,000.

It is stated that the Companhia Geral has given an order for 400,000 dols. worth of rolling stock and other railway material. This order embraces, among other things, 315 cars of different classes and 45 Baldwin locomotives.

According to a telegram published in the Correio do Povo on the 14th, the proposal by the Paulista company to purchase the S. Paulo railway will be based on such a price that the net revenue of the English company will suffice to meet interest and sinking fund on the capital employed in the purchase.

By decree of yesterday's date, the Minister of the Interior authorized the North West Argentine to open to public traffic the sections between Curuzu Cuatia and Mercedes and the city of Corrientes and Salado from the 15th instant. Within five months the Company is to carry out all the conditions and execute all work required by the Engineers' Department.

The Engineers' Department have sent to the Executive their report on the accident on the Argentine Great Western which occurred 4 kilometres from San Luis. There were no personal injuries but $20,000 damage was caused. The Company is declared to have been responsible for the accident.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The bird with the golden plumage fluttered up and down wildly yesterday. People are getting clean sick of the gold premium and wished there was no such thing as gold—not even a gold watch—in this wicked world.

The storm in the first of the small hours yesterday morning was a rouser. There was one terific thunderclap that awakened the whole city, and the people mistook it for a "cañonazo" announcing another revolution. By the way there is a trebly triangular duel about the last revolution going on amongst the Civicos, and "you're another" is the phrase of the day. The most interesting point in the wordy war is the fact that General Roca escaped arrest, and perhaps worse, through the failure of a "cañonazo" at the moment agreed on as a signal to capture him. The conspirators sat for hours in a house opposite his, waiting for the expected signal to rush in and seize him; but the shot was not fired, for what reason has still to be made known.

Cordoba will have to do a deal of charity in future to cover her multitude of sins. The latest bit of backsliding is that not one cent of the $150,000 sent to the Government there for the inundation sufferers has yet reached the latter! This is a very serious affair.

An old subscriber wants us to allow him to start a correspondence on Assification of the Brain. We can't just yet, till the deeply interesting Grain discussion comes to an end.

It is said that the three Chilian warships at Montevideo may be here to-day or to-morrow. Nobody seems to know why they are coming.

This evening, Saturday, a lecture will be given at the Young Men Chtistian Association, 417 Montes de Oca, on "Tierra del Fuego and its people" by the Revd. Thomas Bridges, who has had an experience of over twenty years and who has gathered very much that will prove of interest.

The genial and popular Commander Forsyth, of the United States corvette Talapoosa, now at Montevideo, and pay-master Wilcox have been visiting their friends in the camp and this city since last Sunday. Two of the Essex's officers are here on a short visit.

Footballers will be interested in the formation of the Argentine Association Football League. The preliminary meeting was held on Thursday evening when the League was formed and a code of rules drawn up and agreed to. The representatives of the clubs in the League meet again next week to elect office bearers and arrange matches. This looks well for the coming season's football.

There is another aspirant to wood-paving fame in the field, Signor Arnaldi, who is firmly convinced that cylindrical blocks of Argentine wood, laid vertically, are the proper and patriotic thing in the way of pavement. No doubt, but where is the money to come from when morose tax payers unpatriotically refuse to stump up.

One of our morning contemporaries says that several members of a very aristocratic club mean to resign, owing to the unpleasantness that occurred during Carnival.

The mighty Parana is so high at Colastine that the water is within three feet of the sheds where half the wheat crop of this year is stored, and if, it get in, the consequences will be tremendous for the owners of the grain.

A mathematician has figured that a man fifty years old has spent three years in buttoning his shirt collar.

Mr. H. Pearse has very kindly and liberally invited the children of the Anglican Church Sunday School at Campana and their parents to have their annual treat in the grounds of his house this afternoon. We wish the youngsters a good time.

Yesterday the Revd. Cecil F. Luckman left this city for Cordoba by the night train, having on the previous day received the Episcopal Licence to the Chaplaincy of Cordoba from the Commissary of the Anglican Bishop. The reverend gentleman leaves behind in this city many friends and well wishers who will gladly welcome him on every visit that he may be able to pay them from time to time, and he carries with him their good wishes for his life and work.

Sr. Boucau is the proud owner of a splendid colt by Ormonde—Philosophy, foaled on Thursday last. This is a real triumph of equine science. The young gentleman is destined to run in England. May he prove to be the winner of the Derby of 1894.

Messrs Wilson and Co., agents for the Pacific Steam Navigation Company, have kindly favoured us with a receipt for the field-glasses we found at the Boca, when landing from the Liguria, and the owner of which was a passenger by that steamer.

The Montevideo Times describes as follows the delights of the recent Carnival in that city:—

"There were few maskers, and hardly any of them worthy a second glance, an old suit of clothes turned inside out and decorated with patches being apparently the extent of their resources. We did, however, notice some two or three prettily adorned carriages, especial attention being attracted by one very diminutive vehicle, drawn by two dwarf donkeys, hardly as big as mastiffs, and containing two charmingly dressed children. Dippers, jugs, "bombos," powerful squirts and buckets were brought into play, and it was impossible to go two squares, even in a tramcar, without getting a ducking. A more shameful and degrading scene could not well be imagined. We have heard it said that orders were privately issued to the police not to interfere and not to enforce the regulations."

In Mendoza now they are devoting their whole minds to the destruction of the Locusts, and are said to be very successful. In nearly all other parts of the republic, unfortunately, it is the Locusts who have been successful.

The enchanted capital of the Queen Province of the republic seems to be in rather a bad way, and to be getting worse daily. It has an acute attack of the three Ps—police, politics and poverty. The former are everywhere, day and night, and carry their precautions to an aggravating extent; the political cauldron is seething and bubbling; and the want of money and work is such that hundreds of small traders and working men are shaking the dust of the once booming place from their shoes for ever.

Compania Primitiba
DE
Gas de Buenos Aires.

Rebaja de Precios,

En virtud de las reformas realizadas en la fabrica de esta compañia, que le permiten elaborar una contidad mucho mayor de gas de la que antes producio, el directorio ha resuelto hasta nuevo aviso fijar el precio del gas del modo siguiente que regira desde el 1° de Febrero proximo.

Por metro cubico $0.225.

Por impuesto municipal $0.004—Son 0.23 pesos el metro cubico.

Para consumidores de cierta importancia haremos un descuento en relacion al consumo.

No duda el directorio que dada la calidad del gas que fabrica esta compañia, cuya intensidad de luz es siempre superior al tipo oficial de 20 velas, el publico se penetrara de la gran ventaja que tiene en usarlo.

Si hasta ahora hemos cobrado el precio de 25 centavos por metro cubico, es porque nuestros elementos de produccion no nos permitian dar abasto a todos los pedidos; hoy, a pesar de las malas circunstancias por el alto precio del oro, lo expenderemos a 23 centavos incluso en este precio el impuesto municipal, contando con que el aumento de consumo nos compensara la rebaja que hacemos en favor de nuestros numerosos clientes

THE DIPPING SEASON.

Under the above heading, the following appears in a recent exchange:—

"Speaking of Dips themselves, perhaps the most significant feature in their "History is the way that the Old-fashioned have been superseded by the more "Modern and Scientific preparations. As Tobacco gave place to the various "Fluids" "and these again to the "Powders" so we find to-day these latter retiring before the "new Paste Dips. Of the many recent experiments we have witnessed in England and "the Colonies, the most successful were with an Arsenical Paste, manufactured by "Tomlinson and Hayward, of Lincoln, a firm that has always been noted for keeping "a breast of the times."

"The advantages of the Paste over the "Powders" are many:—

"It does not make the wool dry and harsh, but leaves it soft and silky, giving a "healthy sweet smell to the sheep. Being, so to speak, already mixed, it is easier to "prepare there, being no waste nor loose "Powders," to fly about.

"As it is prepared with Carbolic it is lighter than the "Powders" and does not "so readily settle to the bottom, and for the same reason it is not injurious to the "hands. It goes in less space and is a more concentrated form than the "Powders," "thus effecting an economy in transport and labour. It costs less, and will mix with "any kind of water. In a word, it is the "Powders," cleared of their many inherent "defects, with their curative properties and good qualities preserved and increased. "Until the manufacturers make some better discovery

Friday, February 13th.

The elasticity of the gold quotations today again staggered the market, and it is a significant proof of the very unsettled state of affairs to see the price opening at 351, dropping like lead to 342, then reacting to 349 and closing at 347. It was said that more favorable news had been received from London regarding the loan, and this in conjunction with the reports that gold quotations will again be permitted on 'Change, produced a decidedly satisfactory impression in the market. Of course all this has yet to be confirmed, but even the rumour is welcome as showing how the wind is shaping. Furthermore it is asserted, with much persistency, that the Government contemplates a speedy repeal of the Free Banking Act, though on what basis is not yet known, whether there will be a general liquidation with a phœnix bank started from their ashes or a re-organisation of the National Bank as a sole bank of emission. All these reports gave much food for comment, and it was generally agreed that any departure from the present untenable attitude would be an improvement. Stocks received slightly. Constructors closing at 11.40, Catalinas at 16 60 and National Bank shares at 88.50, Cedulas also being in better demand at improved rates.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during the first ring:—

It was stated on 'Change to-day that a telegram from London was received this morning by a leading English house, giving an extract from the Times' city article of yesterday, which says that, notwithstanding the difficulties that have arisen about the rescinding of the City Improvement works, the loan will be done. This was considered by many as the best of good news, although we note that there are many now who would prefer no loan at all.

Another piece of good news is that the cash gold sales are again to be quoted on the Bolsa, and there is a rumour current that the tax of 2 per cent on the deposits in the private banks will soon be rescinded, which all admit would at once produce a great market improvement.

Shipping brokers report a tremendous fall-off in freights, due, it seems, to the appearance of some extra steamers not belonging to the regular lines. Thus bales have fallen over ten francs in twenty-four hours, a convincing proof of the previous lack of tonnage. The steamship Cortes has taken bales at twenty five francs, although regular liners still hold for thirty francs, and for cereals rates are also down; in spite of the enormous supply of wheat still awaiting shipment at Rosario and Colastine. For the former port 27/ is quoted and for the latter the concession for a colony in Misiones granted to Sres. Rolon and Rosetti.

All our native colleagues published to-day particulars of a Custom House fraud, said to have been perpetrated by a leading English firm. We learn on good authority that the whole thing is a mistake which will be speedily set right and the duties have all been paid.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks during the second ring:—

The sale is reported in the Once of further lots of barletta wheat from the west of the Province to the Gran Molino Fluminense de Rio Janeiro at 10.80 m|n per 100 kilos, also a lot of 4,000 bags from Chubut to be received aboard at 10.30 m|n per 100 kilos. Prices thus shew a sensible improvement, since formerly good barletta sold at 9.80 whilst to-day as high as 11 m|n is being paid. Some chacareros in the west of the province and some Santa Fe farmers hold out for high prices for their wheat, but these are only exceptional cases, as the majority have either sold their wheat already or contracted for it at low rates.

The Municipality has come to an amicable set lement with Mr. J. Barnetche for the expropriation of his house in Calle Buen Orden and Avenida de Mayo, so that the proceedings commenced in the Law Courts will be discontinued. The price agreed on is 400 dols. per square metre.

Patagones advices announce that it has rained heavily there during the past three days. The rain was badly wanted, as the drought had been protracted.

Rosario advices give the Custome' receipts to date 10,600 dols., an average that will scarcely suffice at the end of the month to pay the employees. Business is paralysed and liquidation going on all round. The Capital says that the new directors of the bank will not take office unless they are given carte blanche to take whatever course a due study of the state of the institution may suggest, but as the Government owes the bank over six millions and some influential parties about 15 millions more, the probabilities are that the terms proposed will not be accepted.

La Plata advices announce that the Government has taken seriously into consideration the proposal of a syndicate to lease the port, so that some move in this direction will be made, probably in the direction of a call for tenders. The Government is so pressed for funds that it is the general opinion in the market that the port must soon follow in the wake of the Western Railway, though it is quite probable that in new hands a greater impulse will be given to the works and such increased facilities offered to trade that the port, instead of dragging on as at present almost unnoticed, will push its way into active commercial life. The lines of railway to the port belonging to the Government and at present leased to the Western Railway will not be re leased when the contract expires, which will be almost immediately, as the Government is determined to do away with monopoly, and by inducing competition, to lower rates and increase the facilities of trade.

Our well-informed colleague El Argentino, in its commercial column, draws the attention of the Government to the fact that owing to the great depreciation of the paper currency it seems that all the wheat grown here will be exported, thus creating the necessity of importing flour from abroad. It gives the following significant calculation:—

	m/n.
100 kilos of wheat, placed in the Riachuelo in this city, cost	10.25
Expenses abroad	0.40
Waste, 3 p.c.	0.30
Value	$10.95
	Francs
Taking 11 dollars at the rate of 1.56	17.16
Insurance	0.14
Freight	1.50
Value in francs	18.80

That is to say, cost, freight and insurance give 13.80 francs at the price of 10.25 m|n and with exchange at 1.56. The actual price of Argentine wheat in France is 20 francs all duties paid, thus leaving a net profit to the exporter of 1.20 m|n per 100 kilos.

Messrs. Luis Godoy & Co. sold yesterday the following properties:—

Small house in Calle 24 Cuyo, between Ecuador and Bermejo, for 4500 m|n, to Juan Paoletti.

A piece of land alongside at 8 m|n per sq. yard to M. Gauberi.

The following operations were effected in the Montevidean "Centro Comercial" on Thursday:—

Some time ago we reported an important business in live stock, Mr. J. B. Repetto, the well-known saladerista, having purchased from Mr. J. Anchorena no less than 20,000 head of cattle. The figure has now been increased to 25,000, the price and conditions being the same.

The following is the movement of the important fleet consigned to Messrs. W. Samson and Co.:—

The s.s. Montevidean, Allan Line, has cleared for Dunkerque direct with 2603 bales of wool from this port, and 1484 from Montevideo, making a total of 4087 bales in one steamer.

The s.s Olimpo has cleared direct for Antwerp with 38,882 bags of wheat.

The s.s. Cascapedix clears to-day for Antwerp, a full ship.

The s.s. Crauford and San Gotardo are filling up in port, and will clear for Dunkerque direct.

The s.s. Florence is taking in bales in the Darsena, and will clear to-morrow for Dunkerque direct.

The s.s. Buenos Ayrean is expected in port on the 16th inst.

The following are the killings to date in the Montevidean "saladeros":—

Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machine Company, limited.

Cabaña del Rincon,

Estacion Pereira, 18th Sept. 1890.

Messrs. Agar Cross & Co.

Dear Sirs,

I have great pleasure in reporting favourably of your "Wolseley Sheep Shearing Machine." Up to date we have shorn upwards of 300 Lincoln Rams and Borregas, and find it quite up to our expectations. It is simple and easily handled, and in no way complicated or difficult to understand or work, and so far it has never been out of order. It shears the sheep beautifully: it does them quicker and considerably better than it is possible to get them done by hand, and saves the poor animal a great amount of abuse.

I have timed our Amateur Shearer here, and find he can shear upwards of eight in the hour. Consequently, I consider the Wolseley Machine one of the best patents I have yet seen, in proof of which I intend having some more put up at an early date.

Yours very truly,
WILLIAM RIDDICK.
